

Contents

Foreword	vii
List of illustrations	xiii
‘Sober attentive men’: Scots in eighteenth-century America Edward J Cowan	1
Scottish merchants: sorting out the world of goods in early America Ann Smart Martin	23
Thomas Affleck: a Scottish cabinetmaker in eighteenth-century Philadelphia Alexandra Kirtley	45
Across the Broad Atlantic: Scottish glass and the American trade Jill Turnbull	69
The Scottish silversmith in the Americas George Dalgleish	91
From Fife to Phyfe; or ‘the tale of one Scotsman’s odyssey in early America’ Michael Brown	107
Scotland crosses the Atlantic: evidence for eighteenth- and early nineteenth-century ceramic trade George R Haggarty	129
Kilmarnock carpets in the American colonies Vanessa Habib	151
The influence of Scotland in American cabinetmaking Stephen Jackson	171
The ‘Raeburn craze’ in Philadelphia Jennifer Thompson	185
Scottish high-style furniture: the key types, 1750–1850 David Jones	199
Collecting Scottish weapons David Caldwell	000
Index	000