

Proceedings of the Society of Antiquaries of Scotland

Murray Medal for History Call for Submissions 2018

The Society of Antiquaries of Scotland welcomes submissions to the Murray Medal for History (2018).

Funded through a generous donation from Dr Peter Murray FSA Scot, this prestigious silver medal and cash prize of £200 are awarded biennially to recognise original research published in the Society's annual journal, the Proceedings of the Society of Antiquaries of Scotland, into the history of Scotland in the medieval and early modern periods (c AD 500-1700), set within a British and/or European context. For the purposes of the award, history is defined as encompassing all branches, including art history, but shall exclude archaeology for which there is already Society provision.

The Proceedings has published articles presenting original ideas, interpretations, discoveries and results on all aspects of Scotland's past since its first volume in 1851.

Guidelines

- Submissions for the award should be submitted as a paper for publication through Scholastica. All submissions will be judged by an independent panel of historians prior to consideration for publication in the Proceedings of the Society of Antiquaries of Scotland.
- All submissions to the award will be considered for publication, whether or not they are awarded the prize.
- All submissions should adhere to the Society guidelines for authors, and state clearly that they are to be considered for the Murray Medal for History.

Deadlines

Submissions for the next award must be submitted by 30 November 2018 for the prize to be awarded at the 2019 Anniversary Meeting.

Further details may be requested from the Managing Editor.

Web: www.socantscot.org/publications
Email: editor@socantscot.org
Tel: 0131 247 4145

