Purpose for a review

1 Should there be a review of charity regulation?

Yes

2 Please explain why you think there should or should not be a review of charity regulation.

Please give us your views:

To date reviews of charity regulation have been very specific, a wider review would be welcomed.

3 If a review of charity regulation is undertaken, which of the following should be the purpose of the review (choose one):

To assess the effectiveness of current charity regulation in meeting the future needs of the sector

Please give us your views:

We believe that any review of the effectiveness or current charity regulation in meeting future needs will also have to include a remit to explore whether changes are required to the Act.

4 Do you think you or your organisation will have capacity to contribute views to a review process in the next 12 months?

Yes
